Dear Galleher Retailer

Since 1937, Galleher has met the ever-increasing demands of Southern California, Arizona and Nevada flooring installers, retailers, builders and commercial flooring contractors. Galleher products are installed in hundreds of thousands of homes and countless commercial installations. No one company has provided more interior furnishing products to Los Angeles's finest residences and leading cultural centers during the past 70 years than Galleher.

With over 140 employees operating from 17 locations, Galleher is the leading full line floor covering distributor in the southwestern U.S. Current sales exceed $60 million a year and the company maintains over $17 million in inventory in more than 350,000 square ft of warehouse space. We are proud of our 70 years in business and gratified that our efforts have made us one of the largest flooring distributors in the U.S.

With the fast changing flooring industry, Galleher sources product from nearly 100 suppliers on five continents. Industry leading brands such as Lauzon, Formica, Mullican, Somerset, Kaindl, Lamett, 3M, Bona US and Roppe along with Reward, our exclusive private label brand that gives Galleher the best lineup of hard surface flooring products in the industry.

Our company's unique business model, which integrates three dynamic platforms, makes us both efficient and effective in all that we do. Since 1937, Galleher has consistently met the needs of hardwood flooring contractors. This important group of customers requires specialized service with both broad and deep product lines. Since 1999, Galleher has aggressively provided products and services to retailers, commercial contractors and design centers as a full service hard surface distributor. Our manufacturing facility allows us to provide custom parquet floors and prefinished hardwood to meet the exact requirements of any contractor, homeowner or designer.

Our state-of-the-art IT infrastructure, extensive transportation fleet and modern communication network allows us to operate at very high levels of accuracy and productivity. However, these investments are meaningless without a talented and passionately committed group of associates. We are proud of all of our sales, operations, administrative and management personnel that make up our employee ranks. With hundreds of years of experience, Galleher people are truly ready to deliver your flooring solutions.

What's listed above is the foundation for our business. We know that success both today and tomorrow requires happy customers and motivated employees. If you are a potential customer and meet our strict requirements we are anxious to start a new relationship with you.
